“Nalo meli” is the Hawaiian word for “Honey bee”

E aha ana 'oe e ka nalo meli
Mūkīkī pua aloalo
Maluna malalo, pau nā 'ono
Ke ki'i 'ana ia a ka nalo meli.

What are you doing little honey bee?
Sipping the sweet from the hibiscus bloom
From the top to the bottom you gather sweets
That's the trick of the little honey bee.
From ke mele Nalo Meli by Alice Namakelua

It all begins with the bees – and the flowers. Our Honey bees gather nectar from exotic flora and rare fauna found only in Hawaii. These “nalo meli’s” carry it back to the hives to create Aloha Farms Hawaii pure raw natural Hawaiian honey. All of our honey is pesticide free and certified laboratory tested, and we practice only regenerative and sustainable organic beekeeping.
